State Deputy's thoughts about success in life

Success will be fulfilled by:

- S Sacrifice: Do not let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do.
- U Unity: 2nd Principle of the Knights: Don't allow anyone to talk you out of being successful in life, whatever it may be.
- C Commitment: Individual commitment to a group effort. The irony of commitment is that it is deeply liberating.
- C Communication: Is better when people communicate as brothers, face to face.
- E Encouragement: Everybody wants to know:
Can I trust you?
Are you committed?
Do you care about me?
- E Enthusiasm: What makes things happen?
211 degrees: Water is hot
212 degrees: One degree more and water boils.
I degree more and things happen.
- D Discipline: the secret of success of every man who has ever been successful lies in the fact that he has formed the habit of doing things that failures don't like to do. Life is all about choices. Either you do it or you don't. Form the habit of doing things failures don't do; or things you don't want to do.

Subject: Dream, Plan, Achieve

To All Successful Knights;

The State Deputy input for the State Bulletin this month is in a letter format. The reason is to make it more personal and directed to you, the reader. The letter is directed to each Knight who has worked to make Washington State the best Jurisdiction in the Knights of Columbus.

We have been in the top ten of 72 Jurisdictions most of the year in membership, and are one of the few who can claim to have all Forms 185-365 and Audits in to Supreme during the first six months of the fraternal year. That success is due to you who will read this letter, and I believe the reason is because you care.

As your State Deputy, I also care that all of you are successful. Because of your success, the state will also be a success.

In order to be the best Jurisdiction, there are some things that need to happen in the next three months, (April-May-June).

We need 300 plus new members.

All Round Table (60) Form 2630's completed and sent to Supreme and State no later than May 30.

Every council bring in one new member.

Forward the Audit, Survey and Columbian Award Forms to Supreme by the end of May.

It's time to put recruiting efforts into high gear and every council schedule a Blitz for each month during April, May and June. Let's put the pedal to the metal.

My question to you, "Will you do it and get it done?"

of Lent; it is the beginning of a new life. When I was in the Army we had PT tests every six months. Many of the soldiers saw the PT test as the end of a period of "cramming". Some of the wiser ones saw the test as the attainment of a level of physical quality to be used as a spring board for further progress. That is how we should see Easter. It is not the end but the beginning of a new phase of spiritual life. Hopefully we have overcome some of our weaknesses and failures and now we are ready to launch into a higher level of spiritual life. We identify with Christ in having overcome sin and are now ready to climb higher.

We begin this month of April with the most power packed three days of the year. Holy Thursday is our celebration of the Institution of the Blessed Sacrament, the consecration of the Holy Oils to be used throughout the year in the sacraments, and the Institution of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Then comes Good Friday; the reading of the Passion of our Lord, the Veneration of the Cross, our journey with Christ as he struggled to climb the Hill of Calvary, and finally our entering into the great mystery of His love by receiving the Eucharist. The full meaning of these three days comes as we celebrate The Resurrection of Our Lord, the most important feast of the Liturgical Year.

Easter proves to us that Jesus is the Son of God. Everything he said and did has the divine authority. Easter authenticates His life. He presents us with the outline of a good Christian life; Love God with your whole mind, heart and soul, and love your neighbor as yourself for the love of God. He shows us how to fill in this outline; love your enemies, turn the other cheek, feed the hungry and visit the sick. He taught us how to love if we want to enjoy His presence here on earth and forever in heaven. He said he was here to serve, not be served, and he came to save not to condemn. As Christians we are "other Christs"; our purpose here on earth is to make God's love real; Jesus was the incarnation of God's love. So I wish you a very Happy Easter and a long life filled with the Joy of this Holy Season.

Bishop White Seminary Update
By: Fr. Darrin Connall

Dear Fellow Knights,

This year the month of April began with the celebration of Holy Thursday. That day the seminary community commemorated the institution of two great sacraments: the Holy Eucharist and the Holy Priesthood. Following the late morning Chrism Mass at the Cathedral, the seminarians enjoyed a special meal of lamb as we honored the priesthood. That evening, we celebrated the Mass of the Lord's Supper where I washed the feet of 12 of our seminarians in imitation of the humble service of Jesus.

April is also the time when the faculty prepares formal evaluations of each of our seminarians. The evaluation process focuses on how a seminarian is progressing in the four major areas of formation which include spiritual, human, pastoral and intellectual. Following this process, Archbishop Brunett, Bishop Sevilla and Bishop Skylstad all receive copies of the evaluations for the seminarians they have studying at Bishop White Seminary.

This monthly update gives me the opportunity to thank those Knights of Columbus Councils who have responded to the request of our Bishops to help retire our remaining construction debt. To date, the following Councils have responded with a pledge or outright gift: Colfax 1488, Pasco 1620, Olympia 1643, Clarkston 3455, Port Orchard 6706, Spanaway 6806, Pullman 7360, Spokane 8137, Spokane Valley 8201, Camano-Stanwood 8476, Colbert 8872, Gig Harbor 9238, Buckley 9637, Snohomish 9664, Deer Park 9721, Sammamish 9833, Port Townsend 10532, Kennewick 10653, Tukwila 11253, Colville 12273, Gonzaga 12583, Enumclaw 13364 and Coupeville 13422. We are keeping the bishops up to date with regard to your generosity and look forward to having 100 % participation from all of our State Councils. May God bless you for your support of priestly formation.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Darrin Connall

General Program Director Messages

My Brother Knights,

On behalf of all of the hungry people in the State of Washington I would like to thank you for a JOB WELL DONE! As you know, we had a very limited time to get the 37 reports that we needed to qualify for Supreme financial assistance for our food banks through the new Supreme Council's "Food for Families Program" this year. I'm proud to report that I have turned in 53 reports thanks to your hard work! Way to go Brothers!!!

As you read this message, we should be in the throws of grading Awards for the State Convention. This is one of my favorite times of the year, because I get to see just how fantastic this State Knights of Columbus really are. I hope that all of you that have submitted an Award application learned about this process and have good luck with the results! The efforts that you put forth on these Awards, win or loose, will not be in vain. You will, no doubt, attain a better understanding of just how amazing our organization truly is.

The State Deputy's 1000 Point Club is alive and well and some of the Councils are getting close to the magic 1000 points number. Making the 1000 Points Club is not an easy task, and I'll be interested to see just how many will make it. Don't forget that the April Service Program Report is due May 1, 2010! This will give me time to wrap up the program for the fraternal year and to prepare for the State Convention. Please help me with this deadline-I've been very lenient about taking late reports during the year, but now I will need your help...get the last one in on time!

49 Councils submitted Service Program Reports for February. They are:

676,763,766,1327,1379,1550,1620,1643,1699,1758,3307,3361,3645,4322,4385,

Bob Baemmert-State Warden

STATE DEPUTY SHORT NOTES APRIL 2010

BLITZ-BLITZ-BLITZ

Means: Council membership quota met

Means: District membership quota met

Means: State membership quota met

Ensure your Council-Assembly-Circle Fraternal Survey is completed and mailed to Supreme (now).

The Round Table Form 2630 signed by the Pastor and Grand Knight is due May 31st. Send a copy to Supreme and to State Deputy.

Columbian Award is due May 31, with all the blocks filled in, including Pro Life. Send a copy to Supreme and to State Deputy or State Advocate.

If your council has not got the above done, the GK or DD had better learn the Apostles' Creed by convention time.

Let's go for 1100 new members, 80 Round Tables and 4 new councils, every council and district to achieve their goals and receive the Star Award. Let's make it happen.

Why not think big?

Every council pray the Rosary before each council meeting.

One decade for our country.

One decade for the Knights of Washington state.

A leader does not surrender to problems.

A leader faces them and resolves them.

At the end of March we are in the top 10 of 72 Jurisdictions for membership. Let's go for #1.

Don't forget to pray. Pray each day, all day.

Who will be the top 3 councils in the state this year? The winners must have all 1000 Point forms and other forms in. Other requirements will also be considered.

Who will be the top District Deputy?

Supreme gave Washington State Council $3,000 as part of our Special Olympics incentive. We can do better. One state received $9,500, all because the councils sent in the Special Olympic forms.

Only 30 Washington councils reported – only 12 involved = 8% involved.

For a Council or District to be successful, you have to make the decision to want to be successful.

The State Deputy Road Show is available for your area.

Do you know what the Power of 10 can do for your council? You will be surprised.

As of March 1, 2010, with 66.7% of the year behind us, we had gained 612 new members, slightly ahead of the pace (68.0%) to attain our intake goal of 900, but had 200 suspensions for a net gain of 412, slightly behind the 63.3% pace necessary to reach our net goal of 650.

Thus, to ensure we meet our net goal, we will need to gain over 1,000 new members and also reduce our suspension rate.

As I write this article (March 20, 2010) we still have only 16 councils that are membership inactive:

01565 01606 01674 02303 03044 03153 05495 07907 08266 08672 09721 11408

I challenge each of the above councils to bring in at least one new member in the next three months so that we can end the year with all councils membership active!

Eighteen councils have net negative membership, but are working hard to move into positive territory. Although Lynnwood Council 5816 suspended 16 members, it has recruited 14 new members and Auburn Council 3598 suspended 14 members, but has recruited 13 new members! Congratulations to Grand Knights Mike Deacy and Gerry Garrison for their leadership!

RECRUITMENT IDEA

I asked the state's top recruiter Jeff Schumacher for advice on bringing in new members. He suggested that councils order KofC Membership Invitation Cards (#2599) from Supreme's Supply Department (free!). Then obtain a copy of your parish directory and mail the cards to 15-20 parishioners per month. Follow up with a call to make an appointment to discuss about the Knights of Columbus. If only a few are interested, many Form 100s will be filled out.

To cut down on the cost - the back of the KOFC membership invitation card is white - simply fill out the address on the back, tape the card shut, and use a postcard stamp!

Your priest is probably looking for a method to reach out to parishioners and encourage them to participate at the parish. The Knights of Columbus is the perfect organization to satisfy the need!

Vivat Jesus!

Karl A. Hadley, PSD

WSC Membership Director

Sir Knights:

It is my pleasure and honor to announce I have received a letter from Supreme Master Lawrence Costanzo approving the establishment of our newest assembly, St Cecelia Assembly 3223 in Stanwood.

The Committee on Charters approved the establishment of the assembly on March 18, 2010.

The assembly was instituted by Sir Knight PGK Don Maile. The charter Faithful Navigator is Peter VanWagnen and the charter Faithful Comptroller is Matt Jarolimek.

The council affiliated with the new assembly is Camano-Stanwood Council 8476.

My congratulations to all the sir knights who worked hard to form their own assembly.

This is the first new assembly in fraternal year 2009-2010.

Karl A. Hadley

District Deputy Director Message

The March Madness month has drawn to a close and those of you who had your councils down as being number one in your area, are they still at that place or have they fallen to the wayside like so many of the number one's favored for the final four. However, not all is lost as we are into the Frantic April theme where those councils still not at the top still can achieve their goals.

Let's look at it this way, those number one seeds that lost in the sweet 16 or elite 8 are now history, but your councils still have a chance to make number one or star council. Of course the time is short as we are down to the magic 3, three months of absolute terror or hard work is a better way to say it.

Those councils who have failed to nominate a member or family for Knight of the Year or Family of the Year, yes it is passed but wait what about all of the Service Awards, Fraternalism Awards, Blood Donor Award and others, you still have time. Get on the ball and get it done.

Now membership is the priority and insurance as well. We still have lots of time and at the state convention you can make that commitment to meet or exceed your established goals. The fight is never over until 1 July 2010 but many of you know that or have you thrown in the towel already.

We still have councils that haven't met their Audit, Fraternal Survey, Roundtable and other reports. Are you on that list, has your District Deputy contacted you. We, at the state level have contacted each and every one of them, along with the state officers taking a personal interest in contacting you. Have you as a Grand Knight or Financial Secretary answered that call. I know some of the District Deputies have put me on their block list as I email them too much but that is fine because all I can do is let them know of their responsibility to support, lead and insure that you meet your goals.

I sincerely hope that all you as Grand Knights and District Deputies meet those goals, even possibly exceed them but remember bottom line, come 1 July as we look back, "If not you – who, if not now – when" can only be answered in one way. Yes I did, or no I didn't.

Remember, it is not too late for a blitz or an all out recruitment. Lent hit us at a bad time this year and many councils and districts decided to hold off. Now is the time to get back on that bike. Remember you don't need to be a winner 8 times, only once, and that once is now. Go for it. Have a great final 3 months of the year and look back so you can honestly say, I gave it my best shot. Congratulations to one and all. Have a great year and hopefully I will see you at the state convention, but if not, I am there with you in spirit and support.

Family Message

I always look forward to the annual state convention in May – it is a time to rekindle old friendships, make new ones, and remember those who have passed on during the fraternal year.

Seldom in the past 40 years have I missed a state convention; the convention and summer meetings are times to revitalize our interest in the Knights, a chance to step back and see what we have achieved – and to note what opportunities lie ahead.

Especially am I looking forward to seeing whom the state officers have chosen to be our Family of the Year and what will be the Family Activity of the Year as well. The nominations for Family of the Year have been reviewed and sent on to the state officers, who will make the final selection; it is not too late to submit nominations for Family Activity of the Year; nominations are due to me no later than April 15th.

I appreciate the opportunity to have served as Family Chairman this year – promoting Knights of Columbus activities has always been one of my favorite things to do.

40 years of membership – and a lifetime of cherished experiences!

YOUNG CATHOLICS AND MORAL RELATIVISM

Next Generation Faces Challenges and Opportunities

By Carl Anderson

NEW HAVEN, Connecticut, MARCH 29, 2010 (Zenit.org).- Twenty-five years ago, Pope John Paul II inaugurated the celebration of World Youth Day -- to be celebrated on Palm Sunday each year. He understood -- as does Benedict XVI -- that the future of the Church depends on the youth, on the next generation of Catholic parents, priests and religious.

But reaching the next generation is not always easy -- especially when young people today are inundated with messages that push them toward a "relativistic" view of morality, toward a value system in which relevant values are chosen on an individual basis -- and are not thought to be universally applicable.

It was this relativistic interpretation of living that Pope Benedict spoke out against in the days just before his election as Pope -- when he warned of a "dictatorship of relativism."

There is certainly a problem with relativism among young people today. A recent Knights of Columbus/Marist poll found that 82% of 18-29 year old Catholics see morals as "relative."

That's a shocking number, but fortunately there is more to that statistic than meets the eye. First, the majority of "practicing Catholics" disagreed, and second, the 82% who see themselves as relativists nevertheless don't consistently apply relativism to moral issues.

When confronted with a series of moral issues, those same Catholic young people who saw themselves as relativistic chose overwhelmingly to categorize issues such as abortion or euthanasia as "morally wrong" -- despite being given the option of classifying each as "not a moral issue" -- which one would assume would be the logical choice of a true relativist.

Inconsistencies

Relativism, unlike truth, leads to exactly such inconsistent thinking, and so ultimately is not a fulfilling philosophy of life.

Overcoming the allure of relativism with a message of truth has been a consistent project of Pope Benedict. Again this weekend, on the 25th celebration of World Youth Day, the Pope took the opportunity to address the young people in St. Peter's Square for his Palm Sunday Mass on the subject of leading a life based on truth.

At the Angelus following the Mass, he appealed "to the new generations to bear witness, with the mild but luminous power of truth, that the men and women of the third millennium may not lack their most authentic model: Jesus Christ."

Truth -- in the person of Jesus Christ -- must be the basis for witness to the faith. It's a simple, yet profound statement.

But to witness to the truth that is Christ requires a relationship with him. As then Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger pointed out ten years ago in an address to catechists and teachers that the art of living "can only be communicated by [one] who has life -- he who is the Gospel personified."

We cannot expect to change culture or influence people if we ourselves do not present an authentic witness to Christ, whom we know personally. And we cannot expect young people to witness effectively to their peers unless they have first developed a relationship with Christ that they are able to present in a very real way.

On Palm Sunday, the Pope also reiterated "to all the young men and women [...] that being Christian is a journey, or better: It is a pilgrimage, it is a going with Jesus Christ, a going in that direction that he has pointed out to us and is pointing out to us."

This is not to say that being a faithful young Christian in the face of peer pressure is easy.

Be not afraid

The Pope recognized this in his remarks when he said: "Do not be afraid when following Christ leads to misunderstandings and affronts. Serve him in the weakest and most disadvantaged people, especially your own peers in difficulties."

There are many reasons such a message can resonate with young people.

Who -- even among relativists -- could oppose or not be moved by the witness of one of their peers helping those in need? It is the preaching by deed more than by word that can often have the greatest effect.

In contrast, the Christian message of love of God and neighbor is both consistent and fulfilling. What it requires to be accepted by those searching for answers in their lives is the effective witness of their peers and of the previous generations.

Only in light of the truth does the passion of Christ, which we celebrate this week, make any sense. Under a relativistic interpretation, Christ's death for others is senseless -- unless he died only for himself -- since the rest of humanity would have no need of him, or of salvation.

Our job is to bring the truth to those young Catholics searching it, to the two in three in the recent Knights of Columbus/Marist poll who expressed openness to learning more about their faith.

In witnessing to the passion, death and resurrection of Christ, let us bring into our hearts that love of God and neighbor so that we can effectively share it with our peers, and with future generations.

Let us take as our own the words of St. Francis: "Preach -- and if necessary, use words."

State Deputy

Lakewood, WA 98498

Dear Mr. Wallace:

Thank for your time in receiving my phone call this week. As I discussed with you, the Washington State Guild of the Catholic Medical Association will be hosting the national Catholic Medical Association's 79th Annual Educational Conference October 28 to 30, 2010, at the Fairmont Olympic Hotel in Seattle. This years program is titled, "Restoring the Integrity of Medicine: An Imperative for a Christian Anthropology" and is shaping up to be a most excellent event. Some of the speakers that we will be honored to host are Professor Josef Seifert from the International Academy of Philosophy, Liechtenstein, Professor Peter Kreeft from the Department of Philosophy at Boston College and Fr. Robert Spitzer, SJ, President of the Magis Center for Reason and Faith. The educational portion of the conference will conclude Saturday afternoon with two special presentations from Professor Stratford Caldecott from Oxford speaking to the heart of John Paul II's Encyclical letter, Fides et Ratio and Professor Mark Miravalle from Franciscan University speaking on how "Our Lady, in Her Divine Maternity of Jesus and Spiritual Maternity of all Humanity, Speaks to the Nature of Man."

The Knights of Columbus State Councils have assisted in supporting the CMA in the past and I wish to again seek your support. Our meetings are always attended by a number of priests, but the opportunity for seminarians to attend is limited by the costs. I would like to ask if the State Councils would be interested in sponsoring individual seminarians from the Seattle Archdiocese as well as the Yakima and Spokane Dioceses to attend the conference.

I would need your direction regarding the best means of communicating this information to the Councils. My goal would be to support at least 10 seminarians. The actual cost for the three day conference for an individual is approximately $600. The CMA has an online program (www.cathmed.org/donations/) for support that will specifically direct funds to a specified scholarship program. Acknowledgement for the Knights of Columbus participation would be advertised in the conference program.

Finally, I wish to acknowledge my gratitude for the assistance of Mr. James Toth and Mr. Karl Hadely in arranging for the Knights of Columbus to assist with the celebration of the concluding Mass for the conference Saturday evening, October 30, 2010, at St. James Cathedral with Archbishop Alexander Brunett.
