Washington State Council
100th Convention

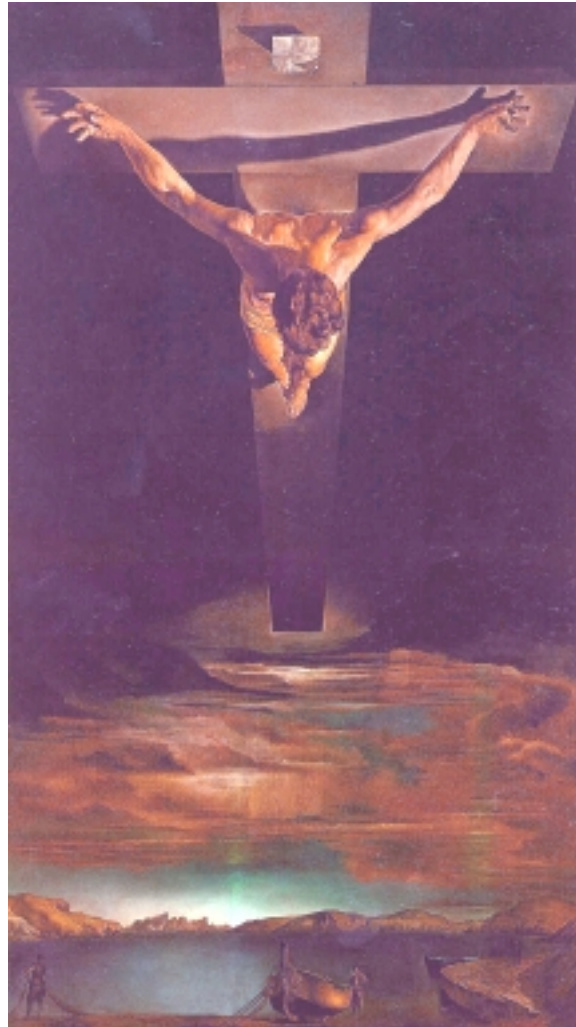

MEMBERSHIP INCENTIVES FOR THE FRATERNAL YEAR 2002-2003

Membership incentives for the fraternal year 2002-2003 are beautifully framed replicas of the painting by Salvador Dalí of 'The Christ of St. John of the Cross'. These replicas are 8 inches by 17 inches mounted in custom made frames with a brass plate announcing the council as the State's membership leaders in their respective division in highest percent net gain and in highest net gain and will be presented at the 2003 Summer Leadership Meeting. Washington State's two leaders will each be presented, at the Summer Leadership Meeting, with a larger framed replica of the painting. These special awards will be on display at the State Convention.

The following is the story of 'The Christ of St. John of the Cross'. One day during the years when Fray John of the Cross was chaplain at the monastery of the Incarnation in Avila, probably between 1574 and 1577, he was praying in a loft overlooking the sanctuary. Suddenly he received a vision. Taking a pen he sketched on a small piece of paper what he had beheld. The sketch is of Christ crucified, hanging in space, turned toward his people, and seen from a new perspective. The cross is erect. The body, lifeless and contorted, with the head bent over, hangs forward so that the arms are held only by the nails. Christ is seen from above, from the view of the Father. He is a man weighed down by the sins of human beings, leaning toward the world for which he died. John, who was to write so many cautions against visions and images, later gave the pen sketch to one of his devout penitents at the Incarnation, Ana María de Jesús. She guarded it until the time of her death in 1618, when she gave it to María Pinel who was later to become prioress.

In 1641, at the time of Madre María's death, the drawing was placed in a small monstrance, elliptical in shape, where it was conserved until 1968. It was then sent for study and restoration to the Central Institute in Madrid for the conservation and restoration of works of art. Now restored and provided with a new reliquary, it is once more available for all to see at the Incarnation in Avila. The French Carmelite biographer of St. John of the Cross, Bruno de Jésus-Marie, in 1945 and 1950 discussed the drawing with two renowned Spanish painters of the twentieth century, José María Sert and Salvador Dalí. The former turned the drawing sideways and interpreted the work to represent the cross leaning forward like a crucifix pressed to the lips of a dying man. Christ is seen then as dragging away from it, his arms stretched almost to the breaking point, his head bent. However, careful study of the drawing has since demonstrated that John's crucified Christ is in a vertical position. Dalí, in turn, was inspired to do a painting from a similar perspective, 'The Christ of St. John of the Cross'. In Dalí's painting, in contrast to John's original drawing, the crucified body reminds one more of a Greek god than of the suffering servant.

From the State Deputy

Worthy Brother Knights,

It is now the mid-point of your council's fraternal year, where do you stand on achieving the goals you set in July? What commitments, as a member of your council, did you make, to recruit at least two new members and to volunteer to work at two council functions? What commitments, as grand knight, did you make, to submit all required reports, to form at least one round table, and to achieve the Star Council Award for your council? What commitment, as district deputy, did you make, to form a new council and to achieve Star District Award for your district? Where do you stand on accomplishing those commitments?

The Grand Knight's message, in the December newsletter, from Deacon Bill Loranger, Holy Apostles Council 13186 in East Wenatchee is one of the outstanding and thought-provoking messages I have read in years. It addresses the subject of commitment. Grand Knight Deacon Bill Loranger wrote, "Once upon a time two honorable men could make a formal agreement. They would agree to terms and consummate the agreement by a handshake. Their word was their bond and the handshake solidified that bond. They had made a commitment to each other and the breaking of that agreement without mutual consent would destroy their honor.

Today, a formal agreement cannot be arrived at without legal documents, describing the agreement in legal terms with the signatures of all parties concerned as well as witnesses and notary action. Of course this must be in at least triplicate. A man's honor, his good word, or a guaranteeing handshake has little value in today's world. Commitment seems to be a word that is slowly diminishing.

The Knights of Columbus are a group of Catholic men who try to show by their lives that there is still a place for honor and commitment in today's society. They strive to make their word a bond and their handshake more than just a sign of greeting but a sign of commitment. They all know that without a sincere commitment to the organization, by attending meetings and participation in various projects, there is little chance of survival. They show that there is more to the Knights of Columbus than signing a membership application. They show that they are dedicated and committed honorable men. They are proud to be Knights of Columbus.

I want to take this opportunity to wish all our Knights of Columbus and their families a Holy, Blessed and Christ-filled Christmas Season."

With this type of leadership it was no wonder that Deacon Bill Loranger's council recruited 8 new members in November, the greatest number recruited in November and, as of December 1, is leading the state with a net total of 13 members. In his message there are many profound statements, I will address just a few. He wrote, "The Knights of Columbus are a group of Catholic men who try to show by their lives that there is still a place for honor and commitment in today's society. They strive to make their word a bond and their handshake more than just a sign of greeting but a sign of commitment. They all know that without a sincere commitment to the organization, by attending meetings and participation in various projects, there is little chance of survival." What I found most compelling was that we as knights can and should show by the way we live our lives that there is still a place for honor and commitment in our society. What truer and more compelling statement than without a sincere commitment to the Knights of Columbus, by attending meetings and participating in your council's projects, especially recruitment, we, the Knights of Columbus have little chance of surviving. Were the commitments you made at the beginning of the fraternal year just a meaningless gesture or have you worked diligently to achieve them?

Your council cannot survive without the continuous recruitment of new members. Will your council complete this fraternal year with a positive net gain? Regrettably, we have a few councils that have not recruited a member in years. We have councils that have ended the year with a net loss of members. It is inevitable that these councils will not survive. However, you can and should step forward to change this downward spiral to extinction. One knight can set the example toward success! He can by believing in his council and strive to save his council. One knight can rally his brother knights by saying the words, "Follow me and we will, in the memory of Father McGivney, make our council once again a great council." If not you, who will take the lead? If not now, when will you take action to make your council successful?

Vivat Jesus,

Wayne C. Hogan, SD

MY "AFTER CHRISTMAS" MESSAGE

Father Lee Hightower, State Vice Chaplain

About three weeks into January some years ago I received a Christmas card with a picture of a clergyman in a long black coat. When I opened the card itself I read: "I am a devout procrastinator, Merry Christmas". I've thought of that card so often as I write my "after Christmas cards".

The two months after Christmas are usually terribly dull. It is too cold to go out to do much and we need time to rest up after the hubbub of the holiday season. I have long ago quit sending Christmas cards but I did come up with a unique type of stationary, which I now use for my "after Christmas" messages. In the left top corner is printed:

When the song of angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home again,
When the shepherds are back with their flocks,
Then, the work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild peace among our sisters and brothers,
To make music in the heart.

FATHER
OLIVER L. HIGHTOWER
STATE VICE CHAPLAIN

The good will and cheery greetings of Christmas give a warm and happy feeling as we celebrate the anniversary of the first coming of Christ. But, it is so easy once the Feast itself has come and gone to go back to our humdrum way of life. Wouldn't it be a great world if everyone would build on the good feelings of Christmas and set out to do something about the problems, the hurts, the loneliness which beset so many in our society. Those who have lost their way are searching for the light of Christ, which should shine through our every word and action. A person whose spirits are broken can be repaired with a bit of kindness. Often the hungry are satisfied only when they meet Christ: "Our hearts were made for thee O Lord..." St. Augustine. Fear imprisons many and keeps them from reaching out. Maybe, if we were to reach out to them.... the Pope has told us that if we want PEACE we should work for JUSTICE. The more the noisy chaos in our society subsides the more we will hear the music in our hearts.

Christmas is not over, it is just beginning. MAY THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS GUIDE YOU THROUGHOUT THE YEAR AND HELP YOU FIND CHRIST IN OUR WORLD TODAY.

SEMINARIAN SPONSORSHIP

Larry Jesmer - State Vocations Chairman

My Brother Knights:

As we enter into another New Year, we all make New Year resolutions that we seem to never meet. Well, mine this New Year is to again see that no diocesan seminarian in the state of Washington goes without support by a council, assembly, or a squire's circle. This is a totally achievable New Year resolution. With your help, this resolution will be accomplished. I am proud to announce that all the seminarians in the Seattle Archdiocese now have at least one council or assembly sponsoring them. I would like to congratulate Grand Knight Peter VanWagnen, Camano-Stanwood Council 8476, who picked up three of the seminarians, listed in the December state bulletin, who had no reported support.

We do have a ways to go in sponsorship. Listed below are the seminarians who have no reported support. Please let's not leave the below listed seminarians unsupported. They need us NOW!!

SPOKANE DIOCESE

YAKIMA DIOCESE

Cesar Lopez, Alex Madrigal, Ruben Murillo, Hector Ramirez, and David Valdivia.

As to the Seattle Archdiocese's seminarians, councils, assemblies and squire's circles are urged to select a seminarian with only one sponsor. The more we support the more good we will do. As to the Spokane and Yakima Diocese, let's get these seminarians supported. Help me make my New Year resolution. I extend my thanks to all who have been and continue in support of our seminarians.

May God Bless you all: Larry Jesmer Vocations Chairman

We offer our prayers for them and their families.

May their souls rest in peace.

REGIONAL MEETINGS

The Regional Meetings are designed to assist the councils in the final six months of the fraternal year to achieve their goals, plan for the State Council Annual Meeting, submit award documents and receive the Star Council Award. Grand Knights, Program Chairmen, Membership Chairmen, and Financial Secretaries should attend. All knights are invited to attend.

The Financial Secretary/FSPC Training sessions will be conducted by George Turk, PSD, Tom Weber, PSD, and Mark Davis, FS Council 4782. The First Degree Competition will be conducted at four of the Regional Meetings. All councils are encouraged to bring candidates to the degree. Tom Weber, Ceremonial Chairman, will notify the four finalists.

The Grand Knights are to bring the Grand Knights' Handbook, Supreme Reports booklet, Family of the Month booklet, Surge.... with Service booklet and Annual Survey of Fraternal Activity. If a council has mailed a copy of their survey to Supreme, they should bring a copy. If a council has completed the survey, but not yet mailed it, bring the form and the state will mail it to Supreme for the council. If the survey is not completed, bring information and complete the form at the meeting. The state will mail it to Supreme and provide a copy to the council. In the State Deputy's letter on the Star Council Award, December 13, 2002, to each grand knight, he enclosed the STAR Team 2002 booklet. He encouraged you to pay particular attention to the Columbian Award Actions on page 2. The General Program Director, in December, mailed each council guidelines and suggestions on activities that may be included in the five sections of the Columbian Award Application form (#SP-7). Using these guidelines and suggested activities, the council will prepare a draft Columbian Award Application form and provide it to the General Program Director at the Regional Meetings.

The Regional Meetings are designed to allow attendees to drive to the meeting and return home the same day. Councils are responsible to defray the travel expenses of the council attendees. Lunch will be provided at no expense to the attendees. Topics will include membership, retention, round tables, State Convention, Supreme Convention, state programs, reports, and award submissions.

THE STATE DEPUTY'S 1000 POINT CLUB

The State Deputy's 1000 Point Club was initiated at the 92nd Annual Washington State Convention on May 20, 1995 by Past State Deputy Charles F. McLean. Membership in the prestigious State Deputy's 1000 Point Club is available to all councils in Washington State and is a testimonial of the excellent program activities of your council. To be selected a member of this exclusive club only requires that council membership be motivated to put forth the efforts to achieve it. Each Grand Knight should set a goal to become a member of this prestigious club.

The grading for the State Deputy's 1000 Point Club is derived from active participation in the Service Program Activities. The Service Program Report submitted monthly to the State Program Director should list all the council activities for the past month. Credits are given for each activity. The possible credits available are listed on the Service Program Report, found on page II-35 of the Grand Knights' Handbook.

The Service Program Report is due by the tenth of the month following the month of the report. However, reports can be submitted late and receive credit for the council's activities. The final cutoff will be May 1, 2003.

Councils that are interested in knowing their score may contact the Service Program Director at any time to request their council standing toward the 1000 points.

Grand Knights, you and your council deserve induction into this prestigious club. Remember, you are only competing against yourselves to achieve the 1000 points.

GOODNIGHT MICKEY

Gary Weber, Family Chairman

When saying prayers at night with our two oldest children, we name our family members and ask God to bless them. We occasionally let the children add one or two names for their friends. Since my son calls his stuffed animals "friends" he began to add Mickey Mouse to the blessing list. His older and wiser sister successfully pointed out that Mickey is a cartoon drawn by illustrators. Now the blessing add-on is "God bless the illustrators."

The foundation of our council rests on Catholic families. The Family-of-the-Month program is designed as a simple method to name and strengthen this foundation. In addition to an entry into the Supreme drawing for a Holy Family statuette, our State Council will ask for God's blessing on all families recognized by their local council. Every month our State Vice-Chaplain will offer a Mass for the intentions of all the state families recognized through the Family-of-the-Month program.

The Family-of-the-Month program offers councils a means to recognize families that illustrate the principles of a Christian life. God bless the illustrators – and their families.

FS CORNER

George C. Turk, PSD, FVSM

There will be a Financial Secretary Seminar at each of the Regional Meetings. Financial Secretaries are requested to bring their Financial Secretary Handbook and a backup copy of their FSFC3 program data if they have had any problems with it. Having a concrete example of the problem assists in giving a specific recommendation for a solution. A number of Financial Secretaries have been upgrading to new computers. We therefore expect to show the easy way to switch the program to a new computer at the seminars.

SERVICE PROGRAM REPORT STATE DEPUTY'S AWARD

John Wallace-State General Program Director

There were 47 (38%) reports received out of 126 councils submitted for November. Two Districts achieved 100% of their Councils reporting. Both of these have 100% for the year. Congratulations to Bill Davis, District Deputy, District 16 and Gerald Caulfield, District Deputy, District 25.

The Monthly Service Program Report is the major input for the State Deputy's 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Award and the State Deputy's 1000 Point Club. Both of these programs are achievable. However, the council activities must be reported on the Monthly Service Program Report.

The following by District is the percent of November reports received: District 1 - 0%, District 2 - 33%, District 3 - 40%, District 4 - 17%, District 5 - 0% (for year), District 6 - 40%, District 7 - 67%, District 8 - 0% (for year), District 9 - 17%, District 10 - 17%, District 11 - 33%, District 12 - 75%, District 13 - 50%, District 14 - 0%, District 15 - 83%, District 16 - 100%, District 17 - 0% (for year), District 18 - 20%, District 19 - 67%, District 20 - 33%, District 21 - 60%, District 22 - 40%, District 23 - 25%, District 24 - 67%, District 25 - 100%, District 26 - 33%.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

(From Ahtanum Mission Council 6097 newsletter)

Christians come in three models: rafts, sailboats, and tugboats. First, there are the rafts. Basically, they are Christians in name only. They follow Jesus only when someone else pulls or pushes them. Second, there are the sailboats. They follow Jesus, but only in sunny weather. When stormy weather comes, they go in the direction of the wind and the waves. In other words, they follow the crowd more than they really follow Jesus. Finally, there are the tugboats. They follow Jesus regardless of the weather. They go in his direction not only when the wind and the waves serve them but also when the wind and waves oppose them. Tugboats don't always travel as fast as they should, but they always travel straight. What "Model" am I?

If I were arrested for being a Christian, would they find enough evidence to convict me? To be a Christian is to be like Christ.

Join the Columbian Squires for this year's gathering. It's not too late to form your own Circle to send to the convention. The convention will be held at St Vincent de Paul Parish, located at 30525 8th Ave South in Federal Way. Tune in next month for further details.

NCD and RT GOALS STATUS

At the mid-point of the fraternal year we have achieved 2 new councils and 19 round tables. Our newest round table is St John's Mission at Mukilteo; the mother council is Everett 9617, GK Shawn Richard.

Remember, round tables are re-established each year. We still are waiting for those councils who established round tables last year to resubmit form 2629 to Supreme with a copy to the State Deputy and District Deputy.

All parishes and missions without a Knights of Columbus presence should be contacted and the benefits of a round table and/or a council needs to be presented to the pastor. If not you, who. If not now, when?

January Highlights:

2002 Survey of Fraternal Activity – Individual Member Worksheet, Form 1728A 9/01, must be submitted by January 31, 2003.

Mail out a form to each member with the annual dues or have members fill it out at your monthly assembly meeting. This is an important form and help the Knights of Columbus maintain its' tax exempt status plus documents activities of volunteerism performed. Don't procrastinate, become a 100% member in the District of Washington by submitting on time. Important Note: Not every member of the assembly will submit the form, set a deadline date, keep it and submit information you have. If at a later date you wish to submit an update, do so but the initial submission is most important.

Pro-Life March: Become a part of the Pro-Life March on 16 January 2003 in Olympia. I am asking all Sir Knights to join our State Deputy Wayne C. Hogan and the Master of the Fourth Degree in marching on this 25th anniversary of the original march. I would like as many Knights as possible to attend in Tuxedo, I ask that Faithful Navigators request all Sir Knights to join in this march and please wear their social baldric. Contact me at: robpsdkcwa@aol.com or (253) 584-5632 with those assemblies planning to attend and the number of Sir Knights.

Why do some Knights wear Feathers?

An information forum will be held at St. John Bosco Hall in Lakewood, 22 February 2003 for potential candidates for the Fourth Degree Exemplification. This will be an information program for all assemblies and councils in the area who wish to bring potential members and will start immediately after 5:00pm mass at the church. More information will be forwarded or may be requested by calling the Master.

Exemplification at Oak Harbor on February 15, 2003.

Assemblies or councils having potential members may contact the Master for additional information or their Faithful Navigator. Information is also available on the web site for the Knights of Columbus under Fourth Degree.

Civic Award and Patriot Award: Information is available in the Assembly report forms booklet. Both awards due by June 30, 2003 and your program should already be established and planned for if not already held. See page 7 for Civic Award and page 9 for Patriot Award.

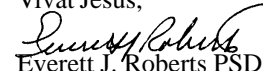

Essay Program: Information packets are available from Supreme. Contest Form 4216 come with a complete set of posters, award forms, scores sheets, etc. is available just by writing to supreme supply department and requesting the kit.

Assembly development: I have a list of those councils who have at least 30 or more members of the Fourth Degree. Those councils that already are not the mother assembly should look at formation of a new assembly. I will contact each council with a request to look at establishing a new assembly in your council and parish area. The same holds true for Father Michael McGivney's' "Dream of a council in every parish, except let's make it an assembly". Many councils are very successful with one parish, one council and one assembly. I hear the naysayers already. Sorry, but new assemblies in the Fourth Degree are needed to continue the growth of the Order of the Knights of Columbus. What better way to continue our Supreme Knights message, "Now is the time for the Fourth Degree".

The followings dates and places for exemplifications have been approved by the VSM Rudolph Wilson:

Feb 15 - Oak Harbor, WA (see article on the web page) -- Mar 8 - Spokane, WA -- Mar. 29 - Vancouver, WA -- May 3 - Pasco, WA -- Jun 21 - Lakewood, WA @ St. John Bosco.

JANUARY - "BACK TO BASICS"

We will be looking at doing what we do best for the next six months and that is going back to recruitment of selected members of our Catholic community to become Knights of Columbus members. Remember, when we used to say, "Are you a member of the Knights of Columbus", we still do that but then we dress it up too much at times. Let's get back to basics.

I would like to quote for you from the Membership Newsletter, the article printed therein, as it probably has the best method or organizing a recruitment drive I know of. When something is perfectly stated, let it speak for itself. Please read and follow the outline given. It should help you be successful in your next recruitment drive.

- An organized church drive is an ideal opportunity to reach an audience of qualified prospects and success depends on careful planning and execution.
- Start by obtaining your pastor's approval to hold a membership drive at all masses on the target weekend.
- Order quantities of Prospect Cards (#921A), Membership Documents (#100), and posters – including the "Why Not Join the Knights?" (#4247). Also have informational recruitment flyers on hand, including: "It's More Than You'd Expect" (#4199), "Did You Know" (#1267), "Family Fraternal Benefits" (#2761), "Faith, Family & Fraternity" (#2925), "Who Cares?" (#2285), and "Everyday Heroes" (#942). All of these items are available from the Supreme Council Supply Department at no charge when ordered in reasonable quantities.
- Prepare an announcement for the parish bulletin and ask that it be run during the two weekends before the drive.
- Put together a tabletop display that highlights your council's activities (scrapbook is nice) and the benefits of membership and arrange for a spot near the main church entry for this display.
- Include handouts with information on your council and copies of your council's newsletter.
- Collate materials and post teams of two to three Knights at each church door before each Mass to distribute these materials.
- Leave sharpened pencils in each pew for men to use when completing prospect cards.
- Arrange for the pastor, grand knight or membership director to make a brief announcement before, during, or at the end of the Mass explaining the Order and encouraging men to complete Prospect Cards and turn them in as they leave.
- Read a letter of support (if available from the State Council) from the local Bishop or priest.
- After the event, deliver the completed Membership Documents, Form 100's and Prospect Cards to the membership director for follow up.

Follow up is most important and must be emphasized. Letting even one week pass without a call or visit from the committee will result in the loss of interest by the potential member.

QUESTION OF THE MONTH?

What is a great source for recruitment other than those items listed above?

Add this to your list of items needed for a successful recruitment drive.

Answer: Membership Pulpit Announcements. Form 2678 9/96 has four suggested pulpit announcements that you can use to advertise from the pulpit.

Sample Pulpit Announcement (#2678) is available free from Supreme Council Supply Department. Pulpit announcements may be shortened for benefit of the parishioners (3 minutes presentation is suggested).

Any announcements for the Knights of Columbus should be coordinated with the pastor before hand. It is important that you have someone, preferably a member of the Knights, who is comfortable before the parishioners, to make the presentation, i.e. a reader at mass. Good Luck on the new program and please add this to the above list.
